

Altrusa HSV Receives Grant from Walmart

Description

By Diane Bielanski, April 1, 2021

Altrusa International Foundation of Hot Springs Village, Inc. President Doris Harder was presented with a grant from the Hot Springs Village Walmart Manager, Robert Nielsen, for the foundation's 4.0 GPA Student Recognition and Scholarship Program.

This program honors students from four local high schools who have maintained a 4.0 GPA in the fall semester. Also, it funds scholarships for high school seniors from Jessieville, Fountain Lake, Mountain Pine and Cutter Morning Star who have maintained a 4.0 GPA all four years.

A big shout out and thank you to Walmart!
