“Photography has been a lifelong interest of mine. I considered majoring in it in college but went with Studio Art instead. Nevertheless, Photography has always been my hobby. I enjoy the spontaneity of point and shoot and the fun of editing a picture to perfection if necessary and I use my photographs as reference material for my artwork.” – Karen Perry

Karen Perry is happy to live in the beautiful and inspiring state of Arkansas where she is a member of the Arkansas Arts Council. This organization provides a variety of opportunities in the Arts.
