

Marcy G. Mermel, CCIM, CAC

Marcy Mermel's education and experience in Parliamentary Proceedings and Robert's Rules of Order occurred over a long period of time while serving on many Commercial Real Estate Boards and a Regional Chamber of Commerce in Illinois.

These Associations varied in size and formality, as well as demographically at Local, Regional and State levels.

1. Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) - the National Board of Realtors' highest designation in Commercial and Investment Real Estate. The fellowship is international as a whole, and includes State Chapters in the US.

Designation 1991 – present;
Illinois State Chapter Member 1991 – 2013;
President and Parliamentarian 1997

2. Northern Illinois Commercial Association of Realtors (NICAR) – Founder and Charter Member of a Commercial oriented State Board, as prior there was nothing available for the Commercial Broker/Agent except Residential Boards.

Member 1995 – 2013
Board Director 1995 – 1998, 2000
President and Parliamentarian 1997

3. Northwest Suburban Association of Commerce and Industry (NSACI) – A Regional Chamber of Commerce serving 7 cities/communities clustered just outside the northwest corner of Chicago.

Member 1985 – 1994
Board Director and Parliamentarian 1988 – 1994

Mermel has remained up-to-speed with the Newly Revised 11th Edition of RRoO which is the current ruling reference.
