Rising News February 2022 Newsletter

MESSAGE FROM

Marc

Another great day for Voices Rising! We were given quite an opportunity when Altrusa International agreed to partner with us for a Valentine's Day Extravaganza (banquet and concert). We have already received several rave reviews regarding the event. I want to personally thank Jill Fitzgerald and Carmen Edwards for their volunteer efforts to make this event such a success. They helped Altrusa with banquet preparations and decorations, and they made sure that the Voices Rising performers kept the show lively and looking good!

It was a great joy to have our very own Jim Servais and his lovely wife, Leah, dance during several of our songs that evening. There is something about dance that epitomizes the idea of couples in love. Thank you, Jim and Leah.

Well, enjoy this month's newsletter. We will be providing you with more information regarding our next concert in the coming months; just know that it will be a summer concert around the end of July or the first of August. Make it a great day, and God bless you all.

DID YOU KNOW...our very own Jim Servais (Bass) and his lovely wife Leah, danced several dances at our Valentine Concert. Here's something you may not know.

Leah Servais started ballet at age four, began training at age 11 with the National Ballet School of Canada and danced professionally with the Milwaukee Ballet Company. With her husband Jim, they successfully owned and operated the Academy of Dance and Music, in Albuquerque, NM, producing yearly recitals for 13 years. They both sang and danced for Oasis Showtime Choir. Leah currently performs with the Spa City Tappers. Jim Servais performed radio theatre, sang in two choirs, a mixed quartet and performed with the Rio Grande Jazz Society in NM. Jim taught sax, flute, clarinet, recorder, guitar and voice, at their NM school. Retiring here in 2020, Jim recently performed the role of

Sam Carmichael in the Village Players production of Mama Mia. Jim is currently singing (and dancing with Leah), with Voices Rising, The Village Chorale, and singing and playing guitar, sax and flute with Carte

Blanche, and Band of Friends here in the Village. He also finds time to ballroom dance with Leah. This is retired life?
